

THE SOUTH AFRICAN BOARD FOR SHERIFFS (SABFS) IN COLLABORATION WITH THE SASSETA AND JUSTICE COLLEGE WILL BE HOSTING THE SHERIFFS INTRODUCTORY COURSE (SIC) 2022

We encourage sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, admin staff and any other interested party, to take this opportunity offered by the Board. We especially invite persons who aspire to be appointed as a sheriff! Please note that achieving the qualification does not guarantee you a post as a sheriff.

This course is being offered free of charge by the SABFS, which includes facilitation, training material and assessments. Candidates are required to complete the course over a five week period which will include, two weeks classroom theory training, together with one week mentorship/practical training, a period for self-study and assessments, in order to qualify for the certificate. Should you not complete the course, you will be liable for costs incurred by the SABFS.

All interested parties are to complete the below table / questionnaire. Complete and submit the notice of interest before 12h00 (noon) on the 17 June 2022. No late notice of interest will be accepted. Travel and accommodation is for your own cost, should you require the same.
